2. Encourager Training -

Whole-Life Discipleship for 21st Century Scotland

Within the suite of materials that the Church of Scotland's Learn Team has produced in recent times, there are Conversations in Worship, Conversations in Prayer and Conversations in Discipleship. To a greater or lesser extent, these resources are towards the 'entry level' end of the spectrum but provide excellent opportunities to involve people in the kinds of discussions that many - including those who have been most of their lives 'in church' - have never had. They are what we might call 'starting points' for spirituality and often lead to an interest that begins to long for more.

Exploring Discipleship is the next part of that journey but what's after that? And what if an individual or group, having embarked on such a journey, wants to keep going and to share what they're learning with others?

Here comes Encourager Training (working title.) It's for those who feel inspired to start intentional relationships with others; relationships that have Jesus at the centre and are committed to sharing and growing in faith. It's for those who want to keep learning, who want to dive in, to adventure in faith within an intentional learning community.

A considerable amount of work has gone into its preparation but before a launch, probably August 2024, it's important that the material be piloted.

To that end, a certain amount of the course is going to be tried out between the October break (week beginning 16th October) and the beginning of Advent 2023. I will be serving as facilitator and the pilot will be 'in-person' in Dundee, open to those in Perth Presbytery and those who are over the river in Fife. The ideal group size will be twelve, with a little leeway on either side.

At its root, 'Encourager Training' digs deeply into the principle that following Jesus is about all of life; that our thinking, our feeling and our behaving are to reflect our love for God and our following aDer Jesus. It's about the move from our faith being a 'Sunday habit' to it including our work, our play and every aspect of who we are. And of course, it is distinctive in as much as it arises out of, and reflects, a Scottish perspective and a Church of Scotland context.

By way of a flavour of the topics covered, the individual component parts of the course include the following:

- Faith as a journey of discovery - learning to listen to God, seeking to grow closer to God
- Understanding who we are - life in all its fulness through understanding how God sees us and wants to use us
- Whole Life Worship - worshipping with heart, soul, mind and strength (beyond Sunday mornings)
- Prayer - a journey of faith shaped by listening to God
- Being a servant - loving our neighbours both within and beyond our church community
- Discipling one another o Being intentional o Sharing our faith o Evangelising o Connecting with those in our community o Journeying with others

Location: Logie, St. John's (Cross) Church, Shaftesbury Terrace, Dundee, DD2 1HJ
 Times: Six Thursday consecutive evenings beginning 19th October, from 7.30-9pm Who: Anyone from any of our congregations - not restricted to members of Presbytery

5. St Marnock's - A Fantastic Treasure -

Do you know what a fantastic treasure we have in the village of Fowlis just outside Dundee?

More chances in September to have a look at one of Scotland's finest surviving small Medieval churches dating from 1453, although a church is first mentioned on this site in 1180! Inside there are artefacts from the 1450's - including paintings, a font and the rood screen doors as well as the 15ft long unique painting of the crucifixion, which amazingly managed to survive the Reformation. (You can see it here: St Marnocks.png ).

If you'd like to see it all for yourself, then were open on the following dates:
Sunday 3 September 1.30 - 3.30pm then in conjunction with the Doors Open Days in Angus and Dundee on 9/10 September and on 23/24 September when we'll be open from 11am - 4pm.

Tours of the church and refreshments will be available - and all free!

6. Working in church with children with Additional Support Needs -

Gordon Roy writes 'I'm part of the training team working with Gavin Drummond and Drew Barrie so when Drew heard I was putting this together with the folks at the North Parish Church, Stirling in my work capacity with SU Scotland, we thought we could promote it through Perth Presbytery. You'll see I've included three waysforrecipients to share news.'

PURE ASN (Thursday 5th October)

Our presenter - Kirsty Lockhart - leads teams within SU Scotland and is part of the Inclusion Team at Perth & Kinross Council. She'll lay the ground work of our understanding on the first evening helping us to observe and engage with our children differently over the intervening weeks before returning to work through specific examples from our experience at our second gathering.

The event is hosted by Stirling North Parish Church and parking is available within the Braehead PS grounds behind their building.

News of this evening can be shared with your church by PowerPoint, A4 poster or the smaller handbills that are all available as downloads and shown in the links below:

May I draw attention, in particular, to the New Testament course that starts in September? And to the course Rev Dr Marjory MacLean will run in October, with distinguished contributors, 'Navigating the Church's Mission'?

In the past we have had participants from across Scotland. Most of the sessions run online, and for the occasional in-person workshop we can make arrangements to include distance participants via streaming.

13. Being an Intergenerational Church - new book and events - Suzi Farrant - Young People and Young Adults Development Worker writes:

Darren Philip and I wanted to let you know about a new book and some associated events that are designed to help folk in congregations and presbyteries consider what it means to be an intergenerational church and some of the practices that we can initiate to help us get there. This is a key part of the work and strategy of the Intergenerational Church Task Group. We are praying that this will be of benefit to all in the Church of Scotland, particularly through the Presbytery Mission Planning Process as congregations are uniting, working together, seeking to be missional, and move into the future, and at a time when we are perhaps feeling tired, overwhelmed and not sure of the way forward.

Book

The book we have co-authored 'Being an Intergenerational Church: Practices to Bring the Generations Back Together' was published yesterday so is now available to buy from St Andrew Press. <https://standrewpress.hymnsam.co.uk/books/9781800830363/being-an-> intergenerational-church. It should also be available in e-book form soon.

This is the blurb from the back cover:

There is a growing realisation across mainstream churches that age-segregated models of connecting with children, young people and families are not working. Drawing on their extensive experience, Suzi Farrant and Darren Philip set out a vision for bringing the generations back together to become the intergenerational church we are designed to be. In conversation with the writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, they develop a theological rationale for intentional intergenerational relationships of mutuality lived out within the core activities of the church.

Through an exploration of the Christian practices of humility, hospitality, participation, discipleship, joy, worship, discernment and testimony, they call the church to re-discover its DNA as an all-age community of transformation.

In person launch event

To go with the publication of the book we have designed a few opportunities for people to gather and engage with it. We are officially launching the book with an in person event in Dunfermline on Sat 30th Sept. This interactive event, open to all ages and people from all denominations, will offer a vision of hope. Featuring intergenerational worship, the sharing of stories from local congregations, discussions about different aspects and practices of intergenerational church, the event will seek to equip and inspire you, no matter where you are on the journey to being an intergenerational church. All are welcome - those who are sceptical, those who have questions, those who long for it to be so, those who are fearful, those who are worn out trying and those who are hopeful.

The event is free to attend but registration is required - booking closes Tue 26 Sept. Light refreshments will be provided but you will need to bring your own lunch. Doors open at 10am with the first session starting at 10.30am. The event will finish at 3pm. All ages are welcome but under 18s need to be accompanied by an adult.

Those who attend will be able to purchase the book at an event discounted price.

<https://being-an-intergenerational-church.eventbrite.co.uk>

Online book groups

Recognising that lots of people can't make an in person day event, we are also running a couple of online book groups. These will enable people, over a series of sessions, to engage with the authors and delve into the themes of the book through discussion. The groups will seek to equip and inspire you, no matter where you are on the journey to being an intergenerational church. Those who attend will be able to purchase the book at an event discounted price. The groups are free to attend but registration is required.

The Thursday group is particularly aimed at ministers, deacons, children/youth/community/mission workers, but all are welcome. Thursday Oct 5 & 26, Nov 9 & 23, Dec 7, 11am - 12 noon. <https://Being-an-intergenerational-church-book-group-1.eventbrite.co.uk>

The Tuesday book group is particularly aimed at elders, children/youth volunteers, worship teams, but all are welcome. Tuesday Oct 10 & 24, Nov 7 & 21, Dec 5, 8-9pm.

<https://Being-an-intergenerational-church-book-group-2.eventbrite.co.uk>

Promotion

We'd be hugely grateful if you could disseminate this info throughout your presbytery, inviting people to attend some of the events and encouraging them to engage with the book and its contents. If it helps keep things simple we have put all the events into one collection so there is just one link to share <https://www.eventbrite.com/cc/being-an-intergenerational-church-578349>. I've also shown below a few images which you could use on your own social media, including some of the endorsements we received.

20. Saying Goodbye - Saying Goodbye, (part of the Mariposa Trust) are coming to Dunblane in September with a very special Baby loss remembrance and support service (part of a UK and Ireland chain of events). These events are extra special to us this year as this is our tenth anniversary year!

We are also holding 3 more services across Scotland if you are unable to attend this one (Glasgow, Edinburgh and Inverness)

The Mariposa Trust's core objective is to support people who have lost babies at any stage of pregnancy, at birth, or in infancy. It was founded in 2012, by Zoe and Andy Clark-Coates, who saw a critical lack of support for people like them, who had gone through baby loss. With over 258,000 babies being lost yearly in the UK alone, the charity needed to be able to offer not only a comprehensive package of befriending and support but also national baby loss remembrance services (called Saying Goodbye Services), for people to join together and remember the children they had lost. 5 years on, over 150 services have taken place at Cathedrals and Minsters across the UK, US, and France, and 2023 will see 21 services across England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland.

On the 10th September at 3pm in Dunblane Cathedral, Dunblane we will be hosting one of our Saying Goodbye Services and as this is the most local service to you this year we wanted to share this information with you.

So who is the service for?

Anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth, or in early years, or who has been affected by family members' or friends' loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact that they haven't had children. This may be due to circumstance, infertility, or for other reasons - but all are welcome. Babies and children are also invited to come with their families, as the Saying Goodbye service is truly a family event for all.

We know that as 1 in 4 women suffer miscarriage and baby loss, you will have contact with a significant number of people who have either personally suffered baby loss, or who have a partner or family member that has, so we wanted to ask if you would help us in promoting the service.

To read more on the charity, please see the Saying Goodbye website, which you can find at: www.sayinggoodbye.org

25. Message from Perth and Kinross Council - Host Families and Supported Lodgings Carers wanted - Could you make a difference for a young person living in Perth and Kinross?

Our Throughcare and Aftercare Team in Education and Children's Services are currently seeking prospective carers for:

- Unaccompanied children and young people seeking asylum, coming from difficult circumstances in countries around the globe; and
- Young people from Perth and Kinross who are care experienced and are moving towards adulthood and independent living.

If you have a spare room, enjoy the company of young people and would like to support them to gain the life skills they need, you could become part of our team of carers.

There's no one kind of person that could become a Host Family or Supported Lodgings carer. You can be single or married, from the LGBTQ+ community, own your own home or rent, be working or retired. As long as you have room for a young person in your home and time to support them, we'd like to hear from you.

The Council provides full training and ongoing support to carers. Weekly fees are paid to enable you to deliver the support and guidance the young person in your care needs.

For more information, please contact Jenni McRae or Gina Mramor by email to supportedlodgings@pkc.gov.uk
